

It is oputrageous that Sinclair Broadcasting is requiring its affiliates to show a documentary smearing Mr. Kerry two weeks before the election. Whatever happened to serving the public interest, not to mention simple justice? The FCC's job is to protect the public interest, and see to it that media giants don't get to force their views on the public. At the very least, they should be required to give equal time and airing to opposing views. DO YOUR JOB by refusing to allow Sinclair Broadcasting to use its power for its own benefit, and not that of the people whose air-waves they use.
